Articulation Agreement with Community College of Allegheny County

Effective Date: Fall 2012
Initial Review Date: Summer 2013

The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and the Community College of Allegheny County have entered into a transfer of credit agreement to benefit those students who have completed an Associate degree at Community College of Allegheny County and wish to pursue a Bachelor degree at The Art Institute of Pittsburgh.

Articulation Agreement

The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and Community College of Allegheny County hereby enter into the following agreement:

- The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and Community College of Allegheny County will draft Course Transfer Guides, as an addendum to this agreement, which identifies Community College of Allegheny County courses which satisfy specific course, general education or unrestricted elective requirements at The Art Institute of Pittsburgh.
- Under this agreement, students who complete the courses listed on the Course Transfer Guide, with a grade of "C" or better, will receive transfer credit for those courses that are required in the chosen program of study at The Art Institute of Pittsburgh.
- Course Transfer Guides shall be reviewed after the first year of implementation and reviewed every three years afterwards to modify curriculum changes, if any.
- Students must meet the admission and bachelor degree requirements for the academic year in which they are admitted. Please refer to The Art Institute of Pittsburgh academic catalog http://www.artinstitutes.edu/pittsburgh for complete admissions and program requirements.
- Students are required to submit an official transcript from Community College of Allegheny County in order to complete the transfer of applicable credit.

Marketing Responsibilities

Community College of Allegheny County and The Art Institute of Pittsburgh will work together to specify the appropriate venues for which Community College of Allegheny County personnel can communicate information related to The Art Institute of Pittsburgh. Such communication may include information meetings, updates, announcements and information to schedule in-person meetings with prospective students. Each party is responsible for its own costs regarding its marketing responsibility. Community College of Allegheny County will coordinate with The Art Institute of Pittsburgh to assure that up-to-date program information is available to students and agrees the Course Transfer Guide may be published by each party.

Intellectual Property

The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and Community College of Allegheny County remain the sole owners of all rights to its respective name, trade names, trademarks, service marks, trade secrets, patents, copyrights, logos, and other intellectual property rights, as they now exist or as they may be modified in the future by either party (collectively, the "Intellectual Property Rights"). Either party has only the right to use intellectual property in connection with the performance of this Agreement.

Material or content, regardless of medium, which is used by the other party, jointly developed between the parties, or developed by one party on behalf of the other may be used only for advancing the purposes of this Agreement while it is in effect and only with both parties' consent. The parties must notify the other of their process for obtaining consent and approvals of marketing materials. Unless otherwise specifically stated in this Agreement, any Intellectual Property Rights shared between the parties for advancing the purposes of this Agreement are treated as confidential and proprietary information by the receiving party.

Each party acknowledges that the unauthorized use of the other party's Intellectual Property Rights would cause irreparable harm to the other party. This provision shall survive termination of the Agreement.

Termination and Modification
This articulation agreement has a clearly defined begin and end date. This articulation agreement may be renewed, and is subject to change or modification by mutual written consent between the parties. This agreement is effective upon the signature by appropriate officers of Community College of Allegheny County and The Art Institute of Pittsburgh, and may be terminated by either party upon written notice.

Non-Discrimination
The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and Community College of Allegheny County share mutual responsibility to comply with federal, state, and local laws, including, but not limited to, the Civil Rights Act of 1974, as amended, that are applicable to activities carried out under this agreement. The parties agree not to engage in unlawful discrimination on the grounds of race, color, national or ethnic origin, gender, marital status, religion, handicap, political affiliation, age, or any other basis as prescribed by law.
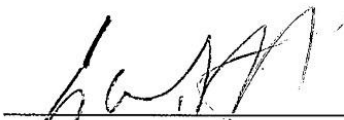

Notice, Demands, and Requests
All notices, demands, requests, and communications required shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered or mailed to the designated contact officers.

Signatures of Responsible Authorities
The undersigned hereby agree to all provisions of this agreement. This agreement is understood to be complete. Other cooperative agreements between the parties require separate negotiation and acceptance.
